Profile Summary

Nasreen Begum is a distinguished legislative expert and former judicial officer, currently serving as an Advocate of the Supreme Court of Bangladesh. She is actively engaged as a consultant in several high-profile government and development partner-supported initiatives, contributing her extensive legal and regulatory expertise to national development efforts. Notably, she is providing consultancy support to the World Health Organization (WHO) for drafting the Drug Control Rules 2026 (English and Bengali) under the Drugs and Cosmetics Act 2023, with a focus on strengthening the legal and regulatory framework for vaccines and medicines in Bangladesh in line with WHO guidelines and international good regulatory practices. She also served as Consultant for the United States Pharmacopeia (USP) on the project titled “Translation of the Drugs & Cosmetics Act 2023 and Drafting of Cosmetics Rules 2024, Imposition and Recovery of Administrative Penalty Rules 2024”, where she has played a key role in translating the Act into English and drafting critical subsidiary legislation to support regulatory reform in the pharmaceuticals and cosmetics sector. Additionally, she is consulting for the Infrastructure Investment Facilitation Company (IIFC) on a landmark initiative focused on the codification and systematic organization of secondary legislation in Bangladesh, aimed at enhancing legal clarity and accessibility.

She serves as a panel lawyer for the Supreme Court Legal Aid Committee and was the founding Director of the National Legal Aid Services Organization, reflecting her deep commitment to justice and public legal service. In November 2024, she was appointed Chairman of the Arbitration Tribunal of the Federation of Bangladesh Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FBCCI), where she leads arbitration efforts to promote alternative dispute resolution in commercial matters. From November 2025, she has also been serving as Chairman of the Investment Protection Fund (IPF) under the Dhaka Stock Exchange.

She previously served as Member (Law) of Bangladesh Competition Commission for three years. She retired as the Additional Secretary of Ministry of Law, Justice & Parliamentary Affairs. With over 20 years of experience in legislative drafting and legal reform, Nasreen Begum is widely recognized as a legislative expert. She joined the Bangladesh Judicial Service as an Assistant Judge (formerly Munsiff) on 20 April 1983, and served in various judicial capacities for over a decade. She was also the first General Secretary of the Bangladesh Women Judges Association.

Her academic contributions include teaching at ICSB, ICAB, and ICMAB. She has served as an Independent Director of the Dhaka Stock Exchange, Project Director for initiatives supported by UNICEF and CIDA, and National Focal Point for UNCAC. She has participated in numerous international trainings across the USA, UK, Canada, Japan, and other countries, focusing on justice reform, legislative processes, arbitration, competition law, and rights-based legal frameworks.
