NOTE: This compilation identifies the major and most significant subordinate legislation instruments. Based on scholarly estimates, the total number of individual SROs, notifications, orders, rules, and by-laws from 1947-1970 applicable to East Pakistan likely numbers between 1,500 and 3,000 instruments. A complete identification would require systematic gazette-by-gazette review of the East Pakistan Gazette and Gazette of Pakistan (1947-1970).

KEY ARCHIVAL SOURCES FOR VERIFICATION

1. The Dhaka Gazette (formerly East Bengal/East Pakistan Gazette) -- Extraordinary and Ordinary issues (1947-1971)
2. The Gazette of Pakistan -- Central government subordinate legislation
3. Bangladesh Code (volumes covering pre-1971 legislation)
4. East Pakistan Statutory Rules and Orders (SRO) Register
5. Pakistan Legal Decisions (PLD) -- Annual volumes 1947-1971
6. Dacca Law Reports (DLR) -- Case law interpreting subordinate legislation
7. bdlaws.minlaw.gov.bd -- Official Laws of Bangladesh online database
8. National Archives of Bangladesh, Agargaon, Dhaka
9. Bangladesh Parliament Library, Jatiya Sangsad Bhaban
10. Supreme Court Library, Dhaka

LEGAL CONTINUITY NOTE

Under Article 149 of the Constitution of the People's Republic of Bangladesh (1972), and by virtue of:

- Laws Continuance Enforcement Order, 1971
- Bangladesh (Adaptation of Existing Laws) Order, 1972 (P.O. No. 48 of 1972)
- Bangladesh Laws Revision and Declaration Act, 1973 (Act VIII of 1973)

All Pakistan-era subordinate legislations continued in force in Bangladesh subject to necessary modifications (replacing "Pakistan" with "Bangladesh," "East Pakistan/East Bengal" with "Bangladesh," "Governor" with "President," etc.) and specific repeals or amendments made from time to time.

Of the 250+ instruments identified in this compilation, approximately 127 remain in force in Bangladesh in whole or in substantial part, making this the most practically significant body of subordinate legislation in the SD-1 Code.

PRIORITY CLASSIFICATION FOR CODIFICATION

HIGH PRIORITY (still widely operative and frequently applied):
